

Inventory of the estate of Thomas Cooke, Senior, of Portsmouth, taken 21 May 1677 by John Albro and Joshua Coggeshall (spellings modernized and punctuation added):

Housing, lands, orchards 15 sheep and 5 lambs
two horses
6 cows
3 yearling cattle
ten swine
pewter
5 brass kettles
iron pots and kettles tramels, spit, tongs
two guns and two swords one table and two cupboards one pair of stilliards two pair of sheep shears, two pair of hooks tin colander and tramel 4 burks
carpenters tools
Saxes
old iron
two chains
one iron crow [bar] » 3 hoes
one whip saw one branding iron & two scythes one cart rope and another rope one chair
3 jugs, two bottles
one box, one [? basket) woolen yarn
two sieves, two [?spinning) wheels 4 pair of cards [used in spinning) linin yarn
one coverlet
one sheet, one pair of sheets, one pillowbear two chests
one bed and bedding
his wearing clothes
more bedding
more bedding
one bag and hops
wool
one chum
flax
one bridle
one Indian Boy
lumber

187:16:00 pounds

The original of this document is included in the Portsmouth Scrap Book, page 72. This transcription is from Thomas Cook of Rhode Island. Published by author Jane Fiske, Boxford Mass: 1987.